Dear

Dorm Party in the room of Diane Ward)

Were taken after the revenge on Diane! Her parents got divorced and threw her party. Poor Diane! Her house really does look like a shower.

Each girls house has a brother house. This year we had Closson for ours. They did things like take us to movies, serenade us, and take us to Eagleville. At football games they put their best foot forward and came on out. Here they are - their best, their worst, and everything else.

We had a real fun event at the first of the year. They call me it's called initiation. We got the freshmen up at 3:00am And G:00 sing

"Violent Love." Here they are!

At 6:00 am the fun began with bobbing for lemons in oatmeal, and singing to the guys dorm, and having the guys feed them breakfast.

If that wasn't bad enough, we went to another initiation. This time however it was a formal event. Here are our freshmen before initiation started.

They call us the Parkers and I don't wonder why!!! We have a cake party like every month for everyone # such a party. This is one such party birthdays. They really make it look good that's all!!

We had a burnout. one night and this is how it came out!

It wasn't all bad it self. Ooo it was good!!

We also had hall exchange once. One side of the hall was treated by the other to all sorts of goodies. Let's see — what Cheryl, Heather + Gail have to offer.

Looks like Jan and Bev have been caught at something!

I mentioned before what strangeness comes out in people here. Jan Turner has a change of face — an improvement? You decide

Before Halloween some of us got together and went Halloween Caroling. Our visits included The Houghs, The Williams, The Graybills, and the Maguires where we were spooked in their haunted house. Afterwards we privileged several guys houses with our 'choir.' Here are some ~~Poor~~ warnings sent beforehand.

Here's a copy of the songs we sang. Thank-you Katie and everyone who got this idea going.

Great Pumpkin is comin to town

Oh, you better not shriek,
You better not groan,
you better not howl,
you better not moan,
Great Pumpkin is coming to town!

He's going to find out
From folks that he meets
Who deserves tricks
and who deserves treats
Great Pumpkin is coming to town

He'll scared in every pumpkin patch,
Haunted houses far and neat,
To see if you've been spreading gloom
Or bringing lots of cheer.

So you better not shriek,
you better not groan
You better not howl
You better not moan
Great pumpkin is coming to town!

I'm dreaming of the great pumpkin

I'm dreaming of the great pumpkin
Just like I do each time this year.
When he brings nice toys
To good girls and boys
Who wait for him to appear

I'm dreaming of the great pumpkin
With every pumpkin carved I write
May your Jack-o-lanterns burn bright
When the great pumpkin visits you tonight.

Shivery Yells

We're on sidewalks
We're on porches
Dressed in costumes to scare
Through the city
we're ringing the doorbells
Trick or treating, candy eating gooey stuff in our hair
But the most fun is shrieking out loud

Shivery yells, shivery yells
That's Halloween nitty-gritty.
Moan and groan, leave us alone;
Halloween's just one night a year!

On Halloween morning we opened our doors to goodies left by Annie. Cookies tied with crepe paper were what we found. Here was a note, after about 2 seconds!!! was left

Sue + Susie,
Jack-o-lanterns are staring at you...
Happy Halloween. Love you, xo Annie

As fruits of our efforts of
Caroling we received

What Is Christmas?

Is it just a day at the end of the year?
A season of joy, merrymaking and cheer?
Is it people and presents
and glittering trees?
Ah, no, it is more than any of these . . .
For under the tinsel and hidden from sight
Is the promise and meaning of that first Christmas Night
When the shepherds stood in wondered awe
And felt transformed by what they saw . . .
So let us not,
in our search for pleasure,
Forego our right to this "priceless treasure" . . .
For Christmas is still
A God-Given Day,
And let us remember to keep it that way.
